Manoir D'Herqueville

Welcome to Herqueville Manor
Exceptional self-catering location for clubs, family and friends in the French countryside. Ideal for groups looking for a special "in camp" training venue, Close to historic Rouen in Normandy and well placed for trips to the coast, Paris and Disneyland Resort.

Who goes there?

Herqueville Manor has played host to many different groups over the last few years, including styles of Karate, Aikido and Jiu Jitsu. It makes for a spectacular and different "gasshuku" environment, and provides a great opportunity for socialising and get to know your club colleagues better. Other visitors use Herqueville as a base for visiting the Normandy coast, countryside, Rouen and Paris. The banks of the Seine are only 150M from the manor gates.

Accommodation

Between the manor and the converted stables building, Herqueville can comfortably house groups of 30-40 people. Sleeping accommodation is spread between 13 bedrooms (some very large) with a total of 9 bathrooms. The buildings are secure in their own two acre grounds, surrounded by substantial walls and metal gates.
